GOOD BOYS.

THE KAMEHAMEHAS WALK AWAY WITH THE HONOLULU.

The second league game of baseball was played on Saturday afternoon between the Kamehamehas and Honolulu, and was witnessed by an exceedingly large assemblage. Quite a number of ladies were on the grand stand which has been fitted up with new seats. Charlie Wilder undertook this work at an expense of $100. He has collected $26, so it will be seen there is a shortage. As the league has money in hand it is likely the deficiency will be made up, without some "good Samaritans" step in. Excellent accommodations have been provided for the scorers and members of the press.

The game was a very interesting one from beginning to end and full of excitement. It was the first appearance of the Honolulu, and they looked neat in uniforms of blue and white. Hay Wodehouse, the catcher, had a sore finger, and as might be expected was not up to his mark. The same may be said of Parker, the pitcher. Harry Whitney played good game at second, Willie Lucas at first, and Friedenberg at third, acquitted themselves well. The out-fielders did not have much to do. Low muffed a fly which proved rather costly.

The Kamehamehas played a really fine game, the pitcher and catcher being entitled to special credit. Their fielding was good and they have every reason to be proud of their success. In the eighth innings when four runs behind their opponents, they went to work and piled up seven runs, adding three more in the ninth innings. The applause at different points of the game was almost deafening. Following is the full score:—
